

Question and Answer Session with TAC about New HUD NOFA for Disability Vouchers

WHAT

On Monday, June 7, 2010 the Technical Assistance Collaborative (TAC) will be hosting an interactive Question and Answer session on assisting Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) to apply to HUD for NEW Housing Choice Vouchers for non-elderly people with disabilities.

During the call, TAC staff will be available to answer questions about applying for this funding opportunity. This will not be a formal presentation, but rather an opportunity for PHAs to ask questions and receive direct guidance.

WHEN

Date: Monday, June 7, 2010

Time: 3:00 - 4:00 PM ET

TARGET AUDIENCE

This interactive call is targeted to those Public Housing Agencies that have decided to apply for these new vouchers and have questions about completing the application and/or conceptualizing program operations and design.

BEFORE THE CALL

In preparation for the call, please:

- Listen to TAC's webinar from April 28th \(archived\)
- Review the NOFA related materials
- Review TAC's Frequently Asked Questions document \(updated 5/21/10\)
- Develop a list of questions to ask during the call

HOW TO JOIN THE CALL

To join the call, please dial 866-266-3378 and use pass code: 8224620012.

Please note that there will only be 100 phone lines available at any given time. We suggest sharing lines with co-workers.

The call will be recorded and made available on TAC's website shortly after the call.

QUESTIONS

To ask questions before or after the call, email nofa@tacinc.org.