

Rebecca Muller is a consultant on TAC's VA TA initiative. Rebecca has 20 years experience providing grant-writing, program design, training and start-up support for organizations serving homeless populations including veterans. Her grant writing and program knowledge expertise ranges from the VA Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem program and DOL's Homeless Veterans Reintegration Program (HVRP), to HUD and HHS/SAMHSA programs that can be used to serve low income and homeless people including veterans.

James Canavan is a consultant on TAC's VA TA initiative. Jim also regularly consults on developing permanent supportive housing for homeless veterans for Soldier On, a non-profit organization in Leeds, MA. A Vietnam Veteran, Jim has developed a variety of new models to provide home ownership and rental opportunities for homeless veterans and for veterans at risk of becoming homeless. His experience includes a variety of government and non-profit roles. From 1992- 2002, Jim served as executive director at Community Teamwork, Inc., the community action agency and regional non-profit housing agency for Greater Lowell and northeastern Massachusetts, respectively.

Soni Gupta is a consultant on TAC's VA TA Initiative. Soni has 15 years of experience in developing new affordable rental and homeownership opportunities for various populations including homeless individuals and families. Soni's expertise includes the provision of technical assistance and project management services to assist non-profit service providers, municipalities, and non-profit housing developers to plan for and develop supportive housing options.